

Recruitment of 200 Engineers by IndianOil in 2010

We wish to thank all applicants who have shown interest in joining the Corporation. It has been an overwhelming response. We are receiving several queries from applicants including next steps to be followed.

All applicants are advised to note the following:

Candidates desirous of checking their details recorded in our database or take printouts of their application submitted may do so by logging in using their e-mail id and GATE registration number.

—→ Click here to login

Applicants, who wish to contact us regarding the application submitted, may send their queries to recruit2010@iocl.co.in.

Due to a technical problem, we are not able to retrieve the data of some of the applicants, who submitted on-line application on 29th January 2010. Therefore, all applicants, who submitted their applications on 29th January 2010, are requested to send us the print out of the application submitted by them, through e-mail (recruit2010@iocl.co.in) or by Fax:(011-26260151) positively by 10.04.2010.